CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Location:

The Chan Centre Auditorium
(10 minute drive from Vancouver International Airport)
Children's & Women's Health Centre of British Columbia, Vancouver

Objectives

- to bring together obstetrical care providers to discuss current controversies in childbirth;
- to provide an opportunity for free standing paper presentations of scholarly work;
- to promote thematic discussions in areas of common research interests; and
- to encourage collaborative research projects.

Call for Abstracts

Researchers are invited to present their current research, completed or work in progress, at the conference. An abstract form is attached.

Call for Posters

Posters (4ft x 6 ft maximum) will be displayed in the Chan Centre lobby throughout the conference.

Proposed Schedule

Research Papers are being presented concurrently on Saturday afternoon May 5, 2006. Four papers will be presented in a one hour concurrent session. Each presentation will be 10 minutes with 5 additional minutes for questions.
